Cascade's Simple License Agreement

When you purchase *** BEAM ***, Cascade Software Limited grants you a license (non-exclusive, non-transferable and without rights to sub-license) to use the number of copies you have purchased of a version of the program which is customised to you.

You in turn undertake to use the program solely for its intended purpose in the manner described in the included Helpfile, and not to modify, adapt, decompile or otherwise change or read the program, or use it in any other way.

Cascade states that it has made every reasonable effort to ensure that there are no significant errors in the program and that its use as described in the included Helpfile is in accordance with relevant Standard Codes of Practice current at the time the program was written.

Cascade does not therefore guarantee that the program is free from error or cannot be misinterpreted, and it is your responsibility to make such checks as you consider necessary to ensure that the program is suitable for your use.

Cascade is not responsible for any errors, inaccuracies or faults which may arise as a result of your use of the program nor for any special, incidental or consequential losses or damage arising from its use.
